Gabrielle E. Martin is an associate in Thomas, Thomas & Hafer's Allentown office and concentrates her practice in the areas of general liability and workers' compensation.

Gabrielle graduated cum laude from Widener University Commonwealth Law School in 2024. While in law school, Gabrielle served as the Executive Managing Editor of the WLC Law Review, treasurer of the Student Bar Association, treasurer of the Business Law Society, and as an Academic Success Fellow. Gabrielle was also a legal and compliance intern for Zydus Lifesciences Ltd. US Division and an intern for the Honorable Judge Jeffrey B. Engle.

Prior to law school, Gabrielle attended Susquehanna University where she majored in political science and minored in business administration. She also played four years of field hockey while at Susquehanna.

Outside of practicing law, Gabrielle enjoys running, spending time with family and friends, playing with her dogs, and trying new restaurants.
